

NATIONAL MENTORING DAY GLOBAL

10 Ways to Take Part in National Mentoring Day - 27th October

Take part in the official celebrations by creating your own mentoring event, activities or promotions in the lead up to National Mentoring Day on 27th October. Benefit from our press coverage, mentoring networks and be part of the largest celebration of mentoring in the world.

Anyone can join in to thank those who mentor across all walks of life, acknowledge mentors and mentoring initiatives making a difference and celebrate the impact of mentoring in business, education and society.

Free Resources

- 1 Create your own mentoring event, activity, talk, workshop or webinar on 27th October.
- 2 Download our FREE 'Get Involved' marketing pack with over 40 ideas to take part. Don't forget to download our FREE 'Thank Your Mentor' Cards and Mentoring 'Selfie Signs.'
- 3 Once you have created an event or activity, promote and share the details using the official hashtag #NationalMentoringDay
- 4 Commit to the Global Ask to mentor someone on the day; everyone has skills, knowledge and experience to share as a mentor.
- 5 Use National Mentoring Day to showcase and acknowledge mentors who've made a difference. Give a shout out, tag and thank mentors using our official social channels.
- 6 If you run a mentoring initiative, this is a great way to showcase what you do and highlight your end of year mentoring achievements, success, milestones, results and impact.
- 7 If you don't have a mentoring initiative you can use the day to launch one or support a mentoring initiative in your community or sector.
- 8 Use the day as a mentoring funding or recruitment drive. Recruit new mentors or mentees using our social media channels and free graphics aimed to encourage mentoring.
- 9 In the lead up to the day, share your mentoring stories, data, tips, research, best practice and case studies.
- 10 Have your say - create a mentoring themed video message, podcast, newsletter, blog, interview or write an article or press release. Join in the conversations using the official hashtag #NationalMentoringDay
